New Hampshire Association School Principals iPad Training for Administrators

Join us for this workshop offered by the New Hampshire Association of School Principals in conjunction with the Seacoast Professional Development Center.

With their demanding and unpredictable schedules, school administrators rarely have time to learn about new technologies. In this workshop, administrators will have an opportunity to discover Web 2.0 tools, including Twitter, podcasting, and blogging as well as discover ways that they can utilize the revolutionary iPad within their jobs. You will receive a 32 GB iPad2 (3G*) with this class. Also available is the 32 GB Wifi version of iPad2 for $770. Our instructor, Tony Baldasaro, Administrator at the Virtual Learning Academy and Community Leader at Powerful Learning Practices, LLC (www.plpnetwork.com) will show you how to customize the settings and navigate through the basic functions of your new pad. He'll guide you through apps that will be useful in organization, productivity, collaboration, creativity, reference and communication to enhance your own learning as well as those you impact in the educational arena. Join us for a journey with one of the most talked about technology tools and learn how to simplify your daily responsibilities through the use of some free web 2.0 tools. A light breakfast and lunch will be served. The cost for this workshop is $899 (or $129 if you bring your own iPad). Checks or PO's payable to ERCSD-SPDC (Exeter Region Cooperative School District-Seacoast Professional Development Center, 30 Linden Street, Exeter, NH 03833) must be received no later than the day of class.
